

James Victor Stayrook

March 3, 1950 - October 7, 2025

James Victor Stayrook, age 75, of DeMotte, Indiana, passed away while doing what he loved most—fishing—on Lake Shaefer.

James was born on March 3, 1950, in Chicago, Illinois, the son of Eugene Stayrook and Anna Kary. After graduating from high school, he began his career at Bethlehem Steel, where he worked as a skilled millwright.

James had a lifelong love for the outdoors and was happiest with a fishing pole in hand. He enjoyed coaching Little League when his boys were young, served his community as a member of the local fire department, an active member of the Old Timers Club and co-founder of the Kankakee Valley Bass Busters. For the past 22 years, James shared his life with his beloved companion, Patricia Fase, with whom he made many cherished memories.

He is survived by his sons, Keith (Jennifer) Stayrook and Nathan (Lori) Stayrook; six grandchildren—Tyler, Blake, Bane, Bohem, Briker, and Madeline Stayrook; and five great-grandchildren—Delilah, Luke, Finley, Benjamin, and Rian; his partner Patricia's daughter, Lisa and grandchildren Megan & Alex who all held a special place in his heart. He is also survived by his brothers—Stanley, Nicholas, Rodney, and Steven Stayrook.

James was preceded in death by his parents and his son, Christian Stayrook.

Family and friends are invited to visit on Tuesday, October 14, 2025, from 10:00 a.m. until the Celebration of Life at 12:00 p.m. at Jackson Funeral Service of DeMotte.
