

James B. Thompson, Jr.

September 30, 1925 - February 2, 2011

James B. Thompson, Jr age 85 of DeMotte, IN, formerly of Hessville and Hammond, IN, passed away on Wednesday February 2, 2011 at his residence. He was born on September 30, 1925 in Decatur, IL to Bertha E. (Woody) and James B. Thompson, Sr., both deceased.

James went to school in Louisville, IL and trained to be an electrician. He was a retired Electrician with I.B.E.W. Local 697 where he was a past FCU Trustee with 45 years of service. He was also a member of United Methodist Church of Roselawn. On March 2, 1946 he married Helen E. Lundquist, who survives. James was involved with Wrong Way Squares, Square Dancing Club, where he enjoyed square dancing and round dancing. He also enjoyed collecting postage stamps and reading. James is survived by his loving wife Helen; Sons, Charles B. (Denise) Thompson, Highland, IN and Scott M. (Lisa) Thompson, Winfield, IN; Grandchildren; Kelly (Milosh) Pujo, Wendy Thompson, Nicole Thompson & Scott Thompson. Sister in law, Patricia Relinski and several nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by his parents, & sister Collice Repetto.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Helen and family,
So sorry to hear of Jim's death. We had many fun times with you both in square dancing and visiting.
Sorry we can not make the service, we are in Fla at this time.
Take care of yourself Helen. Love Donna & Art##imported-begin##Donna Lageveen##imported-end##

February 05, 2011 at 12:53 PM

“ I am very sorry to learn of the loss of James. He surely will be missed. At times like these it can be hard to know what to say in the way of comfort. I have found that the most comforting words are in the Bible. At John 5:28,29 it says that those who have died, like James, will be resurrected back to life! I hope that Jehovah the 'God of all comfort' will help you during this time of need. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)##imported-begin##Jasmine P.##imported-end##

February 02, 2011 at 05:01 PM