“ Dear Family of Jan,

What a wonderful person she was,so helpful in so many ways. I have enjoyed all the information she has on her website, she was so full of sewing and embroidery information. And so free to help if you emailed her about something.

When Viking finally gave her a "Diamond", she was truly worthy of receiving one. And how gracious she was in receiving one. She is going to be missed by the whole world in sewing and embroidery field. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I have not been on my computer for some time so just recently got the information of Jan's passing. Will be waiting for her site to stay up. Thank you to her family. “ Please allow me to add my sincere condolences to those of so many of Jan's sewing friends. Jan and I shared so many emails over the past 10 years. She was always so willing to share her knowledge and there was never a question too simple or too complicated for her to tackle. Viking has lost a great cheerleader. She helped so many of us get comfortable with our machines. I will treasure my videos that she made available to all of us. Mike and Jannie, thanks for sharing your wife and mom with so many hundreds of sewing and embroidery enthusiasts all over the world. She has helped so many women over the years learn to master their machines and techniques. I purchased her DVD's when I first got my machine and they were a godsend.

It is amazing how you can connect with a person you have never met face to face through Yahoo groups. While I never spoke to your mom in person, I feel that I knew her well and she was friend.

“ Jan was the best of women and there are no words that can describe how she touched my life. Her kindness and willingness to help myself and other sewers was infinite.

I sent Jan a box of Godiva chocolates one year as a small token of my gratitude for all her help. She wrote to me that she would only eat one a day so she could stretch out it's wonderful taste and my generosity. My generosity? That made me laugh so hard I thought I would cry.

Anytime I think of Jan and see a box of Godiva chocolates, I smile.

Thank you for allowing her to give so much time, knowledge and love to us all.

“ I like thousands of others did not know Jan personally but felt a personal closeness to her because this was her giving nature that came through and made you feel like you had known her a life-time. She was always the one with the first response if you had a question about sewing, embroidery, the computer or just needed that shoulder. She has helped me many times over the years. What a fantastic person!

Thanks to all of her family for sharing her with us. I know it had to take away part of your time with her but also take comfort in knowing that it was something that she really must have enjoyed since she was so good at it and gave so unselfishly of herself. What a special angel she will be.

“ Dear Henning Family -

Many times we don't know how far our reach goes in this world, so I thought I would let you know the high regard Jan was held in throughout the Viking sewing community.

I had the great pleasure of "knowing" Jan online in the Viking Rose forum on Yahoo, and she was always the first to post with a solution, comfort or ideas for those needing information. I also use her instructional materials regularly and find them exceptionally helpful.

It was clear to me that she was a gracious, loving woman with a big heart. She was a true teacher, and she made great contributions one student at a time.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and yours as you prepare to say good bye for now to a wonderful friend.

“ My time with Jan was both sewing and personal. Our long time email correspondence brought us together on a visit Jan made to Arizona. I had the privilege of hosting a dinner in her honor. Jan was as gracious and lovely in person as she had been on all the sewing groups. I wish I had saved the emails of her relating her childhood years and meeting Mike, then Marilyn and Jannie and the grands and great-grands. We shared love of our families. Every March was a sad time for us as we had both lost a dear loved one. Jan helped me through my grief and loss and I felt her sadness. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Jan was an angel on earth and I will forever miss her.##imported-begin##Georgette Koselke##imported-end##

“ *My prayers and thoughts are with you. Jan was to me the HOPE DIAMOND, excellance personified. I am one of those people who learn very slowly and have difficulty doing anything. She just amazed me with her knowledge and expertise. I had the highest of respect for her and told my family and friends about this amazing lady who just helps everyone on everything. And though she was so far superior to so many, she never seemed to realize it. Her videos make me feel like I can actually do things. I truly am heartbroken for all of us who will no longer be blessed by her angelic presence in our lives. But, we can be sure she is truly an angel now. And I have no doubt she has already organized classes in the most wonderful sewing room in heaven! I will miss her terribly as a gentle, helpful, guiding, and wonderful presence in my life. “ I found out about Jan Henning's sewing expertise after buying an item on E BAY. I also bought a Viking #1 sewing machine and was directed to her website. I sent her a couple of E mails the first week that I had the machine and she promptly replied to my questions and gave me expert advice. I also viewed her video on my machine and plan to watch it over and over, in order to learn how to use the machine. Her expertise in sewing was remarkable. I was amazed at the techniques she could do- especially with the thumbtack and sewing a circle. Ingenious!

She will be sorely missed. I have looked forward to her responses on the website to other's questions, for months. She was always prompt and so gracious and never made you feel like you were asking a stupid question.

“ This morning as I opened the digest for the Designer Diamond, my heart broke when I read of Jan's passing. She and I bonded when Marilyn passed, as I had just buried my second son. We helped and talked about our children who were in heaven. I felt like she was far more than a friend, a soul sister would be a better term, for she helped me with any and all of the embroidery problems I had. Having just received my Diamond for our 45th anniversary, I called and asked so many questions. She recommended her videos and I immediately put a check in the mail. She is with Marilyn now. but we all realize we have lost a loving, compassionate and an exceptional friend. I am so happy to have met her when she was here in Florida and have her as part of my life. May God Bless and keep the family members in his loving arms and help them through this time of grief and sorrow. She was the angel to everyone whose path she crossed and will be miss. “ I, like so many of the others, knew Jan from several yahoo discussion groups. I am new to the machine embroidery world and thanks to Jan's knowledge and experience have come to love my DesignerSELE and renewed love for sewing. Anytime I have had a question, Jan has been there with a solution. Her ability to explain solutions to our problems was amazing and certainly a gift. I was shocked to see Jannie's note of her passing to her cyber friends yesterday. Thanks for taking the time to let us know and realizing that she was an important part of our lives. The postings throughout the day on every discussion group were filled with love for Jan and how she touched so many lives on a daily basis. Thanks for sharing her with us. She will be missed by friends from all over the world. My prayers are with you all - may you find comfort in knowing that she meant so much to "sew" many. Linda in Franklin,

“ To dear Mike and Jannie, I returned today after a week away from home to find news that Jan had passed away. I am shocked and saddened. Like so many others, I never had the great pleasure of meeting Jan personally but felt like I knew her through her group lists. Her knowledge of the Diamond has been invaluable to me as I struggled to learn this new machine. I read all her posts, saved them for future reference, and always looked forward to reading more. I have been astounded by her vast wealth of knowledge, and her unfailing patience and generosity in sharing her expertise with others, be they newbies or more advanced sewers. The sewing world will be darker without Jan, but know that there are hundreds of us who will miss this lovely, kind lady who always seemed to find the time to help others. “ I had only recently made Jan's acquaintance through the SE group and private emails, but she was so clearly a loving, kind, unselfish, and helpful lady. All day, after hearing of her passing, I have thought of Dorcas (Tabitha) in Acts chapter 9 who was "full of good works and alms," and when she died, all the women cried and showed the apostle Peter the garments she had made for them. Jan's demeanor was that she wanted others to have the great joy she did in creating garments and other beautiful embroidered pieces. She has left a legacy across the world. I am sure her sweet attitude spilled into other areas of her life outside of sewing as well.##imported-begin##Anita Robertson from Oklahoma##imported-end##

“ I am so saddened to hear about the passing of Jan. As everyone has said, she has been a rock and fortress for all of us sewers and embroiderers. She was so tenacious and just never gave up. I never met her, but I feel that I have through her videos, immediate and knowledgeable responses on the group sites. And when I had an issue with my computer and machine and she just kept working with me (and prompt were her emails) until we exhausted all possibilities. Turned out it was some crazy Microsoft corrupted update that even Microsoft couldn't figure out. I ended up getting a new computer and having my old one re-built. I have to say that each time I use the computers and the programming I think of all the help Jan offered me. She was so kind and gracious. This is a very difficult time as I can only imagine. “ I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Jan personally. But I'm very familiar with her website and use it often. She was a very knowledgeable and talented lady. I can tell by reading the list that she was a friend to many people and will be missed more than words can express. This quote always comes to mind when someone so loved leaves us. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." May God be with Jan and her family.

“ Sincere sympathies to Jannie, Mr. Henning and all other relatives and friends of Jan. I did not have the pleasure of meeting Jan, even through e-mail, but I have learned so very much from her postings. We revered her for her knowledge and her willingness to share that knowledge with us without asking for anything in return. We now honor her and will miss her tremendously. Your family was so blessed to have had such a wonderful, caring mother, wife, grandmother and friend. Although we never want to let them go, we are always grateful for the time we had.

“ In all my years participating in- and hosting- email sewing forums, Jan was THE most helpful person I have ever known. She answered EVERY question I ever saw posted. She was self-less. I did not know she was sick.

Her family must have benefited from her giving nature. I hope you are comforted by her large circle of admirers. I send my condolences for her loss in your lives. She was a blessing in your lives, too, that she shared with the greater sewing community.##imported-begin##Lynne Harrington##imported-end##

“ I admire Jan for her patients with questions of the viking machine. I emailed with a question of the viking, thinking of a purchase of one and bought the se DVD. She really put many hrs in dev. the DVD's for her customer's.

My thoughts and prayers are with her family, she will be very missed.

We all at the viking will miss this wonderful lady.

Now she's with the angels in heaven.

God Bless,

“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy to my Aunt Marquita's family on her passing. Aunt Marquita (Janice as you call her) was a wonderful person who amazed me so much in what she did in her life. Here are a few of the things that were wonderful about her. She spent time with my mother in Florida prior to her death. She just sat with her and talked with her and did whatever my mother needed. What compassion she had. For me personally, she sewed the most beautiful little dresses for my two daughters when they were young. They were so beautiful, I have kept them to this day. I spoke with Aunt Marquita a couple of months ago on the phone. She expressed to me that if I ever needed anything, if I just needed to talk to someone, please call her. She seemed to always be there for anyone who needed her. I was not ready for her to go because I had wanted to talk with her more. I am sure that my Mother is happy that her sister has joined her in heaven, but all of us will miss her here on Earth.##imported-begin##Peggy Morrison Smolkovich##imported-end##
