“ It has been several decades since I’ve seen you and your family. I have thought of the Hartman-Blount family often, as my middle name is Eileen. Named after my father’s sister, my dear Aunt Eileen.

I heard of your passing, I know you will be missed. Always wondering how your lives have turned out.

Unfortunately, we (the four of us) don’t have a relationship with our father. I was unaware of how all of lives have turned out!

I’m really sorry for your loss

“ My deepest sympathy to all of Jay's family. Jay was a neighborhood friend from Hessville. We grew up together. I can remember the fun times we had at Lost Park.

The teasing of each other and just playing having good old fashioned fun. Hold on to your memories, they will never fade. Prayer's are with you all. So sad.
