“ Many thanks to all of you who have written your healing words in Jeanie's guestbook for her family and friends. Your words are ever so comforting. I was so lucky to have had her as my sister! She was really as perfect as a person can be. Her work here on earth was complete. She left the world a better place and her love and kindness will live on in all of us. I have written so much about her from the time she passed 7/6 until present and have included beautiful memories written by her sons and other family members and friends. I hope you will take time to read more about Jeanie in the link below. I miss her so much already. “ Originally, the way I know Jeanie best was by being told about her by her sister Fran. Fran held her sister in very high regard; Fran was always impressed by Jeanie's very positive spirit, no matter what life threw at her.

I had the pleasure of meeting Jeanie twice, during a holiday visit to Jeanie's sister Nora's house, over the holidays, a few years ago. Fran, who lives in Seattle, was kind enough to arrange this visit-- mostly so I could spent some time with another sister, Toni, who used to live in Seattle. I feel privileged that I was included in the Gallo clan, and very privileged I was able to visit with Jeanie a few times, during my stay. I know Jeanie was, and will always be, cherished by her sisters. Jeanie was kind and gracious. ALL the Gallo sisters have shown me great kindness and consideration.

I know Jeanie adored her sons, and was very proud of them. I know Jeanie will continue to live on in the hearts of her family, and all those who knew her. Jeanie had an endearing sweetness about her. Jeanie's spirit will always be part of those she loved. I am so sorry Jeanie's not in "our" realm any more, but have no doubt that Jeanie's legacy will continue . . . the love doesn't stop. Jeanie may not be here in body, but Jeanie's spirit and sweetness persist!###imported-begin##Elizabeth Lawrence###imported-end##

“ John and Vince, Nora, Toni, Zena and Fran:

Although I didn't know Jeannie personally, Fran told me so much about her and her courageous fight against MS. I know that she was part of a big loving family and that must have been such a comfort to her, especially her 2 boys and her granddaughters. I know that she was kind and loving and that she was able to maintain her joy for life, even under the toughest of circumstances. Jeannie was one of those people that inspired anyone who heard her story. I'm so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Linda Talley##imported-end##

“ Many miles I pushed Jeanie in her wheelchair, up and down paths and ramps, on the beach, and to our wedding. She loved to rock and roll. She rocked while I rolled her. I miss her big time.

“ To The Family, Please accept my deepest condolence for the loss of your dear love one. I would like to share some words of comfort from God's word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 assures us that those who have fallen asleep in death have the wonderful hope to live again. Also take comfort in Revelation 21:3,4 where at that time SICKNESS,PAIN,DEATH,MOURNING,and OUTCRY will be things of the past, GONE FOREVER. Please take comfort in these encouraging promises.###imported-begin##Ms.Jordan###imported-end##
