“ My condolences to John's family. John was one of my truest freinds in my earlier years. I moved to San Marcos from Oregon in 1984. John and I hit it right off. We had many wonderful adventures together in the few years I lived there before returning to Oregon. Even though many miles separated us John always was and will always be my best friend in Texas, someone I would always trust no matter what. That is a very uncommon thing. I wish we had called each other a lot more than we did. I will truly miss him and regret the time we did not spend together. Rest in Peace my brother.
