“ Joe, today is 8 years since you've gone to Heaven. I miss you today and always! We've been apart as long as we were together now. This makes me sad. I still hear your voice and see your smile. You hold a very special place in my heart that no one can ever fill. I'll keep you there forever. Until we meet again. Love always.

Thinking of you & missing you very much. Some days it feels like one step forward, ten steps back. Last night I read the cards, letters & poems you wrote for me. WOW! I was truley loved. I was lucky to have found someone so wonderful as you! That is what makes it so hard. I thank you for loving me as you did. I am happy that you are free of pain & I know you are having a blast! I know you were laughing your butt off at me last night when I locked myself out of the house. Messing with that darn bag of keys. We are lost without you. We love & miss you.

Hi Karen. We have never met before, but 34 years ago, Joe and I and another friend of ours (Lee Hoyt) lived together as roommates and were close friends. Then 26 years ago, I moved to Kansas City. I tried to look up Joe and Lee a few years ago, and found they had both passed. I'm very sorry for you and your kids' loss.

“ I miss you so much dad. Life will never be the same without you. All the Christmas lights look amazing as always & they are shining bright for you. I'll never forget how you use to make fun of me because my butt wouldn't fit thru the pool fence any more! Or when you would through me in the air while we were in the pool when I was little. I understand why god took you so young..you were truly an amazing person & needed someone like you in heaven. I love you so so so much!

“ I didn't know my Uncle Joe very well, or for very long. I wish now that I could have spent more time with him, and gotten to know him better. He truly was a great man, and I know for fact that he left a huge impression on every single person that ever met him

“ Hey you! What you doing? Do you have a minute, and we would talk about Jake, and Jessica, and then somehow we would end up talking technical about our vehicle or lawnmower. Joe is always willing to help and share his knowledge with friends and neighbors. Joe always shoveled snow or mowed lawns for the mature people in the neighborhood. I enjoyed sharing stories with you Joe, Jim and I will both miss you. Karen; you are in our thoughts and prayers, keep those bright-lights shinning, they were designed with LOVE!

Your friend and neighbor,

“ Joe you just don't know how much I am gonna miss ya, I realize we haven't had contact for awhile. You were and always be my best friend. The fun times we had from test driving cars when we skipped school to attending open night at the Trump Casino. So much more to add. I know you are better off the the rest of us but it just doesn't make it any easier to say goodbye,So instead I am saying see ya on the flip side buddy.....Love you Kim

“ When we would play wrestle in the kitchen he would corral me into a corner then squeeze me so tight and pick me up in the air. And then when he would let me go I would pretend I was boxing him but I would barely even touch him and he would shake his head and call me squirrel.

Joe has touched all of our lives in ways each of us will not forget. You were Darryl's Sanding man for the Vette, I am sorry that didnt get to happen. He is missing you so much. Danny enjoyed the times he helped you with projects.

You never refused or complained when we needed help, and I will always be thankful for the generosity you showed whenever you were needed.

You came into our family and it was like we had already known you for years. We love you Joe and will miss you so much!
