“ I don't have many memories of times spent with Josh but I do remember a time my parents and I were at Uncle Gary and Aunt Sharell's when Josh was around 3 or 4 years old and he was at his grandparents' house that day too. He was such a funny little guy and liked to repeat everything we were saying. My mom called him a parrot and I can still picture him sitting at the kitchen table saying "I'm not a carrot". Mom and I have remembered this many times over the years and it always brings a smile to our face. We're so sorry for your loss and we know Josh will be remembered by so many with lots of smiles and laughs!

Love to all the family!
