“Joyce kept in touch with me when I failed to initiate reaching out to her first. She wrote me long letters in her beautiful handwriting and was overly thankful for tiny acts of kindness which she remembered for years by rehearsing them. She adopted our children as her own grandchildren and stored up gifts for them which she'd bring in bulk whenever she could come though Indy. In 2018 Joyce & Tim made a trip from Evansville to Indy just to bring McD's gifts (and more) and visit for one hour! That was lavish! I felt like her daughter, and she was another mother to me. I would try to find her at any McD so I could sneak a visit with her.

I'm so glad the Lord sent you to Trinity Church in 2009 so that I could meet Tim and his devoted mother. The two of you have enriched our lives. We are here to pray and support you as you grieve and start new patterns of living. -Stacy
