

Joyce Louise Lane

February 1, 1953 - June 16, 2010

Joyce Louise (Torbet) Lane passed away in Merrillville following a motorcycle accident in Demotte, Indiana. Joyce was born February 1, 1953, the daughter of Jeryld and Tina (Schmidt) Torbet. Joyce was a 1971 graduate of Rensselaer Central High School and attended Olivett Nazarene College. Joyce was married to her high school sweetheart, Stephen J. Lane, on April 7, 1973 at the St. Augustine Catholic Church in Rensselaer. She was an accomplished seamstress, and for nearly thirty years taught many 4-Hers how to sew. She was county Extension Sewing Educator and leader of the Newton Merrymakers and the Fantastic 4's 4-H clubs. She had worked as a nurse's aide at the Jasper County Hospital and at the Farm Service Agency in Rensselaer. For several years she and her husband owned Sew Many Stitches, where Joyce did the sewing and Steve did the embroidery work. Joyce was a member of the North Newton Merry Homemakers club, county president of the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association and district treasurer for the Extension Homemakers, and the Psi Iota Xi sorority. She was a member of Gold Wing Road Riders Association where she and Steve were GWRRA Chapter Directors R2 in Renssealer. Joyce enjoyed riding with her husband and they were avid supporters of the A.N.N.A. Ride, the Riley Ride and many other charitable motorcycle rides. Joyce was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother and one of her greatest joys was time spent with family. She is survived by three children, Cindy Aubuchon of Lafayette, Jeremy Joseph (Karla) Lane and Christina (John) Tryon, both of Rensselaer, nine grandchildren, Brandon, Elizabeth and Joseph Aubuchon, Jacob and Katie Joe Lane, and Suzanne, Kayla, Fredrick and Olivia Tryon, her parents, Jeryld and Tina Torbet, two sisters, Judy (Roger) Cummings and Jacqueline (Gary) Wiltfang, her father-in-law, Joseph Lane, sister-in-law Carol (Harvey) Wood and brother-in-law, David (Deb) Lane all of Rensselaer. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband Steve, an infant daughter, Sandra Kay, one sister, Janet Fox, and her mother-in-law, Joyce Lane.

The family invites those wishing to do so to ride their motorcycle in the procession to the cemetery.

“ Jackson Funeral Chapels created a Tribute Video in memory of Joyce Louise Lane

Jackson Funeral Chapels - June 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Joyce was the greatest lady. As she talked about her children and grandchildren, you could see the pride swell in her eyes. During our bike trips, she made us laugh and left many happy memories. God needed the great seamstress and loving mother more than we did, but she will be sorely missed. We will forever hold a special warm place in our hearts for this lovely lady. Our greatest sympathy is with her children and grandchildren during this difficult time. Someday we will all meet again.##imported-begin##Ron and Anita Hershman##imported-end##

“ To the family of Joyce Lane I truly extend my sympathy and saddness on her tragic and unexpected death. My acquaintance with her just began on June 7 at the IEHA Home and Family Conference. She was one of my roommates, supper mate, DR friend, Snowman style show fellow participant, and conference friend. Her talents and stories will be greatly missed by IEHA and beyond. God bless your family on your loss.##imported-begin##Linda Deig##imported-end##

“ I served with your mother on the Indiana Extension Homemakers State Board for the last year. She was an outstanding lady, and always willing to lend a helping hand when needed. We will all certainly miss her smiling face, and sunny disposition. I always loved hearing her tails about sewing. I will be keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers as I know the road ahead will not be easy for you. My heart goes out to your entire family. May your parents rest in peace.
