“ So sorry for your loss. As I look at this picture, I see what a pretty lady Juanita was! My father, John Pelling, and Juanita were 1st cousins on the Pelling side. My mom, Beverly Pelling, had corresponded back and forth with Juanita, but Mom passed in 2013, and somehow, she had thought Juanita had already passed several years before that time. I believe my Dad and Mom visited both Juanita and Walter in Arkansas probably back in the 1980s or 1990s. Had I known she was in Jasper County, I would have visited. We live in Clinton County, where my grandfather, Irving Pelling, settled with his uncle, John Warden. I have dabbled in our genealogy over the years and this morning just happened to google Earl Pelling's name and found Juanita's name. I remember visiting your grandmother, we called her Aunt Tillie, and her 2nd husband I believe in Peoria. I remember she was just delightful and quilted me a small doll's quilt for my doll. I don't remember meeting Juanita, but Mom and Dad were always tickled to hear from her at Christmas. They also enjoyed visiting with them a time or two in Arkansas. I made contact with Charles Pelling's 2nd wife's great-great grandson, and I have come across some new info on the Pelling family recently. Would love to meet you and share with you. I can be contacted at brrrwat@att.net or (765) 249-2262.

Again, so sorry for your mother's death, as I know how hard it is to lose your mom.
