“ *Please accept my deepest condolences.
I am the step daughter of Richard and Dorothy Cain (s on of Melvin and Blanche (Brownfield) Cain)*

I have many fond memories of visiting Uncle Bernard and Aunt Mildred when a child.

As the years roll by the memory does fade. However, I recall Judy helping Aunt Mildred in the kitchen or helping to keep us younger ones occupied so the elders could chat a little longer with those they hadn't seen in a while. The house would be near to bursting with so many people but it was a happy warm place.

It breaks my heart that she passed too soon. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

And I just want to say:

Thank you for such lovely memories Judy.
