I had the privilege to watch her grow from a beautiful baby into this incredible young lady. She was a wonderful momma to her son. She loved her family and friends.she loved life. On the 2/7/15 she began her eternal life with a strong healthy body, she will never be ill or have any type of cancer ever again. Her faith in God never waivered, she is face to face with Jesus, she's with the family that went before her and she sings and walks with the Angels.

One thing will never change, I loved her then and I love her still. She will never ever be forgotten. She was a force to be reckoned with. She is at peace, we have to find ours.
