“ There's not a day that goes by that you're not on my mind, I love you & miss you so much. I wish you could be here right now.. You're the only one who really understood how I felt. Now I have my ride or die by my side all the time, her name is Sadie. & I know you know her.. Cause that's my best friend.. & you watch over her now.. cause you know that I care about you. I love & miss you so much, words can't even explain.. it's times like this that I wish you could be here, going on midnight snack runs with me, talking to me, taking me to the drive in, little things like that.. I can't believe you gone.. Rest Easy, Kent. You'll always be my big brother.. Never forget that.. Ever.. You'll always be in my heart, my head, my soul.. Everything.. You're MY big brother.. my inspiration, I don't know what I would've done with out you.. I love you.. & miss you so much.

“ I miss you so much, words cant even explain. It's been really hard w. out you, things are weird, and just different. They're not the same. I know you're watching over us, hopefully protecting us. But that's not good enough, YOU need to be HERE. On Earth, not in heaven. I know god wanted another angel and decided you were best for the job. Not just the best, you were the greatest. And you still are, you always will be. That'll never change, no matter what these haters say down here. Well, i love you. Miss you too, till we meet again.

“ Jackie- I love you so very much, I wish that I could take all of your pain away, although I know I cannot do that. I will always be here to listen when you're upset and thinking about him, and I will be here to reminisce together in all the good times we have all shared with this amazing and caring boy, and I will be here to make you feel better when you feel as if you cannot live any longer because you have lost him. One thing I know for an absolute certainty, is that he will always be right beside you and in your heart. To guide you and give you the strength you need to carry on. Kent loved you so much, you were the best mother he could've ever asked for, and I know he would be saying the same thing if he were here to do so. There will never be another person like Kent Greer, not ever. He was truly one of a kind. He had the biggest heart, a heart of absolute gold. He will forever be loved and missed by so many. I love you Jackie. You know that I already consider you my step mother, and I consider myself so very lucky and I am so proud to be able to call you that. I love you, I will be praying for you every minute of every day. You're the strongest person I have ever known and I know you will get through this, because I know Kent will always be watching over you. I love you so much.

Kent- Even though you were not technically my step brother yet, I still considered you to be so. I am going to miss our talks so much, cheering each other up, and helping each other get out of our depressed moods, and giving each other advise to get out of our bad situations. You were the best person I ever had the pleasure to know, truly. I will never forget you. You were the absolute sweetest and most loving person God put on this earth, and now I truly believe that he takes his best children first. Please watch over us all and give us your guidance, for so many of us need it. When I feel lost, I am going to remember that you are up there watching over me and giving me the strength that I need to find my way. I love you so much and I will miss you greatly. So many of us will. Rest peacefully, my sweet and loving brother. I cannot wait until the day that you and I shall meet again. I love you, and I will never forget you. Thank you for everything you have ever done for me. May your soul rest in complete and utter peace, with our Father in heaven.##imported-begin##Rachel Lynn Barrett##imported-end##

“Kent, I never had the pleasure or honor of knowing you, but I do have the honor and pleasure of knowing your mom. I know she is nothing short of raising the most honorable, respectful, loving person. Her children mean the most to her. This has left a huge hole in her soul. So Kent, I ask of you to spread those angel wings of yours and protect and guide and give the strength to your mom, mike, your sisters and brothers, and all the friends and family who love and miss you dearly. Your life here was too short, but now you have a new role. You are bigger than life. R.I.P. Kent

“ *My God I hurt and ask of thee,
To hold this son I loved for me.
For these few Days we've loved them all ,
And hear the echoes however small.*

*I cannot ask this question now.
We pray to you for strength somehow.
Endless tears still flood my soul.
Please hold me up and give control*

*Clear our minds and hold our hands.
This was to be when time began.
He was a gift and fleeting so,
Thankful for that we could know*

*We ask for visits within our dreams,
that tells a story as though a stream
To know life starts and ambles away,
and other times just seems to play.
But when a stream has found its goal,
It takes its rest upon the shoal.*

*We need our hearts to know inside,
that heavens Gates are open wide
My Child has found his peaceful face, and basks today in Gods embrace.*
