“ So sorry to hear Larry and Irene welcomed us as their family in 1985 when we bought a house across the street from them. Loved sitting in the driveway enjoy cocktails with Larry once in a blue moon Irene would enjoy a Pink Lady. They always invited my Twins to swim in their pool. Very thankful that we were blessed to have neighbors who embraced us from the moment we met. My condolences to the family.

“ I worked with your Dad when he was a craneman in 76/44 Slab yards starting back in 1968 when I came back from the Army. He was quite the character for sure. Had many laugh filled shifts and plenty of antics with him and his buddy Phil Carney. They always tried to outrun my new 1969 Roadrunner LOL, always left them in the dust when we got on Cline going home.. Your Dad was one in a million. RIP Larry...
