“ Today I was sharing with a friend, who doesn't know Linda, that Linda was my friend and that we had shared many things together especially as mothers. My friend wrote this poem for me about Linda and me. I would like to share this poem in remembrance.

JUST TWO MOMS

*We were and will forever be just two moms.
Too young or too old at times we find ourselves.
At times we knew just what to say or do.
Sometimes it fell in or out of place.*

*We were and are just two moms.
Crossing in the pool of Motherhood.
Joining at times in childhood laughter.
Sharing wistful sighs that only moms can understand.*

*We shared delight in being just two moms.
Busy to fulfillment day in and day out.
Sometimes knowing there would never be enough time.
Fixing as many the things we could.*

*We were good friends and just two moms.
Savoring every moment to make them last.
Often exhausting our hearts and talents.
But always thankful to be just two moms so blessed.*
