

Linda Lou Campbell

October 7, 1937 - September 18, 2011

Linda Lou Campbell, age 73, of Rensselaer passed away Sunday, September 18, 2011 at her home near Gifford. Linda was born in Rensselaer, Indiana October 7, 1937, the daughter of the late Vaughn and Irene (Gifford) Green. On July 28, 1956, in Gifford, Linda married Forrest E. Campbell, who survives. Linda attended the Wheatfield Schools, St. Joseph College and Purdue University. She was retired from the Rensselaer School Corporation where she had been a teacher for 23 years. Linda was a member of the Gifford Church of God. Among her joys were reading good books, playing bridge, watching movies, being among children, traveling and social activities. Linda is survived by her husband, Forrest, three children, Melanie (Klayton Kohley) Wright, Susan (Jim) Phillips, and Mark (Stacey) Campbell, all of Rensselaer; grandchildren, Rhiannon Wright, Caylyn Kraud, Cameron and Ali Phillips, and Halston and McClain Campbell; great-grandchildren, Makennah, Makayh and Makoi Wingard; her brother, Gary (Bev) Green of Rensselaer and her sister, Emily (Charles) Green, of St. Petersburg, Florida.

A memorial service for Linda will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Jasper County Home Healthcare & Hospice or the Rensselaer Public Library.

“ Linda was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. Our friendship began when we bowled on the same team together many long years ago. She taught our kids in school, where she was truly loved by all of her students. We met in our favorite place, the library, on many occasions. She lived and loved with all her heart and will be sadly missed by many. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, Fuzz.
