“ O where to start with the memories of aunt Linda. She always had room for me when no one else did. If she knew I was in a store she'd come in say "Vicky " I couldn't see her but I knew her voice and answer "yes aunt Linda " and she'd just hug on me. And then there were them memories you wish you couldn't remember, o like them Ole ugly pok-a-dot dresses with the big bows on the back she insisted on buying for me. I'm so going to miss her, but I'm grateful she's not battling cancer anymore.
