“ Look at you, aunt Linda, so pretty and sweet. I have thought of you often these past weeks and you have continually been in my prayers, but for some reason, God had a different plan for you, so I will respect his wishes and know that he knows what is best. I will miss you, I remember staying with you and Uncle Ernie as a little girl. You were always so nice to me, never had a bad word to say, I'll always remember you and the way you used to make me laugh. You will be missed by lots of people. Love ya, Karen

“ Linda was a great and caring person who we first met at church. There was a group of us that fit so well together out at that little church in the country. Still saw her from time to time even after we all moved on. Always friendly visits with her and Ernie. Heaven gained another wonderful soul. She will have them all laughing there. We'll be seeing you over there someday Linda. Love to Linda and the whole family, Mary & Glenn Walker.###imported-begin###Mary and Glenn Walker###imported-end##
