“ I'm shocked. When Lisa and my daughter, Lisa, were about 8 and 10 years old, they were close friends. I just saw Lisa this summer. We hugged and cried together in the middle of the grocery store. I'm sure people thought that we were crazy. We didn't care. I always thought we would see each other again and have a less emotional time. My heart goes out to Lisa's family. Curt and Wanda - I know the emotions you are feeling - it's probably the hardest thing you've ever had to go through. God will get you through this.

“ I think I met Lisa in mid to late 1999. I always thought we had a bond right from the start. Things happened in life that took our friendship in a drastic turn. We stopped talking for quite a awhile, but when we started talking again it was as if we never stopped talking. I was one who would call her at 2 or three in the morning and she would talk to me no matter how tired she was. She was a great friend and a big piece of my heart went with her to heaven. I love you Lisa Calhoun Johnson, I know you are watching over us all. Thank you for your friendship of many years. I will cherish that always. I know one thing, I will certainly miss our late night talks.

To Lisa's family: I can not begin to express how I am feeling right now. As I am sure you all are feeling the same way. But know this. Lisa loved each and every one of you. You all held a very special in her heart. She still is with us all, although it may not seem that way. Love and prayers are going out to her family. Especially her children. Sending Hugs from Monticello. Love you. Thank you for letting me be a part of your moms life and thank you for letting her be a part of mine. xoxoxox

I am so sorry for your loss. When I first heard of Lisa when she was dating Uncle Art, it was through my mother. My mother loved Lisa. She would always say good things about her. When my mother was in the hospital in February 2000, not expected to live, she came with Uncle Art and showered my mother with the love she had for her. That is how I met Lisa. I know uncle Art loved her with all his heart. I pray they are together in Heaven rejoicing with each other, along with my mother.
