“ Lorraine, it is with a heavy heart that I say good-bye to you today. You were my friend and my confidant. I will miss our long talks and exchanging recipes. I can't believe that we will not be seeing you with that radiant smile that you always had that lit up a room. Family and friends will miss you greatly. Heaven has received a beautiful angel.

“ Lorraine,
Today we all have to say goodbye. And that's really hard to do. My heart is broken. The thought of seeing Jack, your kids, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and knowing that they'll now have to go on without you is unimaginable. You were the glue that held everything together. You were a beautiful person, inside and out. I'll miss our visits, your funny e-mails and your love for Mr. Obama. You left us far too soon.

“ Sock hops, overnights at your house, trading lunches, glitter in our hair, Whiting Beach, Apian WayPizza, white lipstick and your 19-inch waist, your beautiful blue eyes and blonde hair, proms and going to the dunes. We shared our youth, and you were my escape from sadness. I will miss you, you left too soon, and so many things never got said. I know you know how much I love you dear friend..... Forever your friend, Jean
