Jackson Funeral Chapels - March 23, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest condolences to Aunt Glenna and all of Glenn's family. Over the years distance prevented us from visiting family back home in Indiana as often as we would have liked, but on those occasions when we did, we were impressed with Glenn's joyful, kind, loving and hospitable spirit. We know that Glenn will be dearly missed, but rejoice that he is with His Lord.

“ Glenn was the kindest man we ever knew. He was a true friend to his pastor and wife and we always knew Glenn had our back. His love for us was deeply felt and without strings attached. He was the finest example of a true Christian I ever knew.

Glenn, I know you are now part of that great host of witnesses cheering us on as we read in Hebrews 11. My friend, I will miss you and look forward to that day when we shall renew our friendship in heaven. I loved you deeply and will miss you in this life.

I know Glenn's heart's desire is that his children, grandchildren and on would come to have a personal saving relationship with Christ and be where he is when their time on earth is done. We waits for all of you.

Glenn was the sweetest, kindhearted and gentle-spirited Christian man my family ever knew. Glenn never had a negative thought toward anyone. He also was a true and devoted friend to his pastor and his family and we knew that he had our back as well. Glenn left this earth one day shy of his 87th birthday, and he knows that he received the best early birthday gift ever. Glenn, we're not going to say "goodbye," we'll say "so long" and we'll see you again soon.
