“ Mr. Sakel never could call him Larry, I had so much respect for this great teacher and all around kind man. He officiated at my daughters wedding and I am so glad he did, it meant more to me having him do it. He also attended our class of "72" class reunion and we were looking forward for him to attend our 45th next summer. I guess he will look down from heaven to bless his former students. Rest in peace Mr. Sakel, you will be missed.

“ My teacher and my judge. The compassion of Mr. Sakel is one of the most remarkable things I remember. I had him both as a teacher and a judge. When I was 14 or 15 I was riding my motorcycle over to my girlfriends house when I got stopped by a DeMotte Police officer. I don't recall doing anything "wrong" except for being underage on a public road. We all road our motorcycles everywhere back then. Anyway, I was brought up before the Judge. He had a pow-wow with my dad and the officer. They all agreed to a verbal scare/reprimand. They knew it was just kid being a kid. What I took away was his compassion. Decades later, I still recall his kind act.

His kindness and knack for knowing the right thing to do also transferred to his teaching and Christian life. I am so honored to know him. Much love to Judge Sakel and his family.

“ Not only was he the sweetest teacher in high school, but he performed our wedding ceremony 23 years ago....telling my husband at the rehearsal that we should leave "obey" out of the vows because Brian probably didn't want to have to vow to obey me. Mr. Sakel was a funny man. He knew each of his students very well. He reminded me of that on my special event when he told Brian that if he put obey into our wedding vows, it meant that Brian would be obeying ME until our eternity....because he knew that I certainly would be the one dishing out the rules!
Rest in peace, sir. You were an angel walking on earth. I can still hear Ghost Riders being sang through the halls when we had convocations at KVHS!

“ My first memory of beloved Mr. Sakel was when he allowed me as a freshman to take his upper level Bible History class. Through the years he became a dear friend and prayer warrior for me and my family. Heaven is truly a sweeter place to go to now that my friend Lary is there. I will be looking forward to seeing him there. Thank you Lary for your kindness to all.

“ One great guy. The kindest, friendliest person I have ever meet. I asked him to marry Dawn and I back in 2005. He said yes on the spot. He loved it because he got to see and talk to so many of his former students. RIP Larry

“ Judge Sakel was one of the true gentlemen in this world. He was one of the few people that everyone had something positive to say about him and with a smile on their face. As a student I truly enjoyed his class and stories. As the teacher who replaced him in the social studies department I have discovered that you cannot fill Lary's shoes. I just spoke to Judge Sakel on the phone the other week and he was keeping a close eye on this election, particularly with a family relative, John Gregg, running for Governor. I guess my mind at this time remembers Judge Sakel singing "Ghost Riders in the Sky."

“ My dad died on April 26, 2003 and I went home to see the family and help plan his funeral. My sister, brother-in-law, and mom had suggested a few preachers and I thought about it a minute and said no. I mentioned Mr. Sakel because I wanted someone I could trust. We called and left a message and in about an hour he called back and said he would do it.....he didn't want or expect money like most do....he just wanted to sit and eat with us after. We just lost a very honorable and good man.

“ One of my favorite teachers has passed away! Mr. Sakel we all loved you! My favorite memories of Mr. Sakel were when he would sing Happy Birthday to a student and we would tell him it was someone's birthday just so he would sing!!
