“ It is said in Ecclesiastes 7:1, A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth. He made a good life and a good name for his family. To the children of Macario, our cousins, we are sorry for your loss. We have not seen him for a very long time, but we have good memories of him. Good old cotton picking days in San Marcos and surrounding towns. Oh that big truck that would pick us up. How we hated it. But its funny now because they are good memories. Stay strong. From your cousins: Josie, Bay, Lucy, Mary Lou, Ora,, Diana, and Sylvia. Our dad, Luis Tristan was Delia's Brother.

“ Mac always met you with a smile on his face. He was the center of attention and always had a good joke to tell. I was blessed to have worked with him on the farm. He is a favorite memory of mine. Bill Gehring III

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this hard time. I will forever have happy memories of my time with Mac. He was our Best Man at our wedding in 1974. He always had the charm and personality to make everyone feel at ease. My sadness is we never had enough time together. If there are hot peppers in heaven, then Mac's and Kelly are in competition. They always tried to see who could eat the hottest pepper. With Love, Charlotte Moorehead
