

Madge DeWees

September 21, 2008

passed away September 21, 2008 at her home. Madge was born December 6, 1936, in Francesville, IN to the late William and Ruth (Burson) Teide. She was a lifetime resident of this area and a 1955 graduate of Rensselaer High School. On February 26, 1956, in Rensselaer, Madge married Dean DeWees who survives. Madge had a talent for cooking and was a prep cook at the City Office & Pub. For 13 years she was the baker for the Rensselaer Central Schools. She also had worked at the Huddle Inn and various other restaurants in Rensselaer. Madge was a former employee of Northway Products and the A&P grocery. She was a member of the Curtis Creek Country Club. Along with her husband Dean, Madge is survived by 3 sons, Greg (Jane) DeWees, Pewaukee, WI; Brad (Jan) DeWees, West Lafayette, IN; and Glenn DeWees, Rensselaer; a granddaughter, Kelsey DeWees, 2 sisters, Mary (Joe) Falvo, Calumet City, IL and Shirley Dewees Rensselaer, and a brother, Merle Tiede, Greenfield, IN. She was preceded in death by a son, Jeff, 3 sisters and 7 brothers. Visitation will be Tuesday September 23, 2008 from 2:00 - 8:00PM at Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer. Funeral services will held on Wednesday at 10:30AM at Jackson Funeral Chapel with Pastor Kathy Staddon officiating. Interment will follow at Memory Gardens of Rensselaer. Memorials to the St. Jude Childrens Research Hospital or the American Kidney Foundation.