“ Aunt Dancy has always been Special in our Hearts. She was always a joy to spend time with. She was full of laughter, love, kindness and always had Scripture and passages she would quote from the Bible. She had so much Wisdom. Her size would fool a person just to look at her. She always had zip in her step and didnt tarry when she walked. A few yrs back as I was parking in the Walmart lot in Rensselaer, I spotted Aunt Dancy out in the lawn and garden area, picking out plants, I had my daughter walk over to have Aunt Dancy wait for me a minute but my daughter who was in her mid 30's couldnt walk fast enough to stop her until they were at the Check-out. Aunt Dancy would have been in her mid 90's at that time. We would ride our Motorcycle to Tefft to visit her and a few yrs back when she was in her 90's, I noticed a bruise in the bend of her elbow. I asked her what happened and she chuckled and said "dont tell Jim or Richard but I was washing my windows and couldnt reach the one outside the kitchen, so I climbed the television antenna tower to the heighth of the window, wrapped my arm around the metal pole area and reached over and washed my window with the other hand". Aunt Dancy didnt let obstacles get in the way of her Life. She was an example that we could and should live by: Honesty, Integrity, Love, Faith, Hope, Sincerity and a Love for Christ that was Beautiful. GOD got another Angel and Aunt Dancy is Celebrating her new life in Heaven with her siblings now. Prayers are with the family and Aunt Dancy will be missed but never forgotten

Usually not at a loss for the written or the spoken word, I have been struggling with the appropriate words of remembrance of Aunt Dancy. To be sure, there's not enough space to write all she deserves, all she's earned. Just now, I've read the comment by my cousins, Bruce and Debbie Blume. So here's the best my (sometimes far-reaching) vocabulary can do: me too. It's all there: Honesty, Integrity, Love, Faith, Hope. I will add Wit, Wisdom, and Intellect. We join that throng of people who will miss her. Rest in Peace, Aunt Dancy!

“ So glad we were privileged to know Margareta, our precious treasure. She told us when we visited the DeMotte Church of the Nazarene that we would "find milk and honey at this church" and she was part of that milk and honey that we found there. I tried to write down things she said because they were always wise and often humorous. She will be so missed but we rejoice that she's finally face to face with her Savior and Lord.

“ Dear Jim, Rich, and families,
I know your mom will be greatly missed! She has waited a long time to be with all her brothers and sisters and Uncle Wes, and I know they are now happy together! I treasure the memory of the good times we had growing up as cousins! It was always a treat going with Mom to visit Aunt "Dancy" and Uncle Wes in Tefft! Thinking of you all at this sad time!

“ The first time I met Margarettta was 25+ years ago at church. I saw her sitting there beside Wes and I thought, "Oh, she looks like a sweet, little frail lady." Boy was I mistaken! I came to know and love her and look up to this strong, energy filled, sharp minded, tough little lady! She taught me so much in the years I was privileged to be with her several times a week. I would marvel at how much this woman had memorized, when she would recite lines of poetry she learned as a child. She taught the Adult Sunday School class and you would learn so much through her insight. I dearly loved the times we would just sit and play music together. Maragaretta, thank you for being the strong Christian woman you were and I'm so happy you finally are meeting your Savior and Friend face to face!
