“ On November 1 when Margot was first in the hospital, I called her. When she was obviously having a hard time breathing, I jokingly told her Oh good, now I get to do all the talking and you can just say yes or no. She said I'll nod my head! Always, even so ill, she came up with a funny! Classic Margot. I miss her and just know that she is in heaven, flitting around with her new wings and feeling all sassy.

“ To the family of Margot DeYoung: You have my sincere sympathy. I can remember when you all live across the street from us in Remington. I lost my wife Sandi six years ago from Ovarian Cancer. Our twins live in the Lafayette area. Ryan lives in West Lafayette and Jennifer lives in Dayton, In. Again you have my sincere sympathy. MAY GOD BLESS YOU. Rodney Pistick

“ Mom and I had so many wonderful memories together, I wish there could have been many more to share with her. She was so bubbly, upbeat and very talkative, she could strike a conversation with anyone and make them smile or laugh.

Now she is one of God's Angels.

Your loving daughter.
