“ Margot was a wonderful lady who loved her family and friends.. However anyone that truly knew her knew that her first love was her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She lived her life in a way that allowed Jesus love to shine through to her. If you had problem you wanted Margot to pray about it because she was a prayer warrior. Margot loved life and she could find the humor in any situation. Although Margot will be greatly missed by her family and friends we can draw comfort from the knowledge that she is in heaven. So if you would like to join her in heaven someday all you need to do is pray and ask Jesus to forgive your sins and be your Savior. With deepest sympathy. Debbie IntVeld
