“ I remember when I got to sleep over when Aunt Peggy's family lived near the Center School house. Even though there were kids everywhere and even a father-in-law, Aunt Peggy always looked beautiful. Hair fixed, makeup on. I never heard her raise her voice when I was around. I also worked with her at the County Kitchen in Hebron. She was the best cook they had, and I was 13 and washing dishes. If I was caught up with my work she would teach me about cooking. I still do it her way today. Great memories.
