“ Tammy, Peggy, Dannielle...Im so very sorry for your loss. Marilyn was one of the sweetest ladies Ive ever known. She had the kindest loving heart and shared that with me at a time when I was unloveable. She was so courageous and such a fighter. Im so glad she has passed that on to you girls along with her great faith. I know you will miss her terribly, and I know you take comfort in knowing she is in a far better place than here. God bless you all with sweet peace and comfort in knowing one day we all will see her again.##imported-begin##Dee Belford Rader##imported-end##
