“ To the Wright Family, Please accept my condolences. May these words of Jesus be of comfort to you. At Acts 24;15' "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Yes one day we will reunite with our love one that is a promise from God. May these words console you.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##

“ My name is Dupe, I am a volunteer here in Lafayette trying to console and bring comfort to those who are mourning for the loss of their loved ones. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere sympathy.

We should all be grateful now that he is no longer suffering but sleeping/resting according to John 11:11 with no pain and waiting for the day when he will be awakened from his deep sleep. What a wonderful day that will be! To us living that day is going to feel like forever but to Mr. Wright, it is going to feel like just yesterday. Another promise that he is patiently waiting for is in John 5:28,29 that says in part "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".

In the meantime, I hope that God who is a God of all comfort will comfort your entire family during this difficult time of yours.

Once again, please accept my deepest sympathy and have a blessed day.##imported-begin##Dupe##imported-end##
