“ I am sorry for your loss.

I still make her bread pudding recipe that she gave my mother in the mid 1970s.

Thinking of you Pam & Brenda.

“ I remember Mary being so much fun, making you laugh, lifting your spirits, being a good friend. Loving her family and friends... and life. She enjoyed so much in her lifetime. I have many happy & enjoyable memories of her. I am sure you can remember all your happy times with her too. Hold onto those memories as I hope they get you through these sad times. My prayers go out to you & your family. God bless.....

“ A dear loving aunt who was very loving, very kind, and had funny stories to tell. She understood our life tragedies all to well because of her great losses but was able to console us in our times of need. Now she is in heaven with her beloved first born baby son, husband, two other sons, and daughter. Always will be remembered which keeps her alive with us.
