I picked a yellow candle for my precious Mom because her bedroom at home was yellow & so was her room at the healthcare center which I believe reminded her of home. I will miss my Mom Dearly as it breaks my Heart to no end that she is gone. I love you so much Mommy! Thank-you for being my Mom! You are forever in my Heart! <3

“ I smile as I remember the numerous times we gathered as a family in grandma and grandpa's basement for Christmas. I always enjoyed being the chosen elf to pass out grandma's gifts. However, I always had to watch every move I made for fear any silly mistake could be caught on the strategically placed video camera....

What precious memories we each have of Aunt Mary, one of my favorites was when we came up to visit around 1972 she heard us discussing the fact that we only had enough money for gas to get back home, as we were leaving the next morning she handed us a complete meal she had fixed.....bisquits, fried chicken, fried pototoes, apple pie and some drinks.....what a wonderful picnic we had at noon that day..... what a kind & caring lady she was, and I'm very proud to say that she was my aunt Mary....
