“ Much love to all of Aunt Mary’s children & grandchildren and our fellow nieces & nephews from your Ohio cousins! We are praying with you. There is so very much to cherish about our family and our Jarvis roots but the biggest takeaway I have is the way Aunt Mary and all her siblings looked out for one another, helped one another, and enjoyed one another’s company. Aunt Mary cared deeply (and WORRIED deeply!) about all of us. I know we were in her prayers. (Still are, I bet!) I loved talking with her because she was so very genuine in her love for me and for all of us. She was such a good listener; a rock for my mom and, I’m sure, for all her siblings. I am so proud of our family and grateful that we cousins remain close and gather often. That is Aunt Mary’s legacy. We all care for each other so much because of the example of Aunt Mary, her siblings, and all their spouses. You deserve to rest now, Aunt Mary. No more worries. Only Heavenly love and guidance, which we will all gratefully accept, I am sure. Please give our love to the rest of the family in Heaven. I bet there’s a welcoming party for you there right now with homemade ice cream and every sister’s signature recipe. It’s comforting to know you are reunited with Uncle Glen & Ronnie and your parents & siblings. Russell, Ed, and Anita, God bless you! Know that we are loving you and your families from all our different locations and we are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. With love from all your Scheiber cousins, Tressa & Bob, Emily & Alby; Tom & Janice, Lauren, Adam, Madi & Douglas, Meredith, Lesley & Megan
