“ We played Bunco together and one night it was at her house and unbeknown to her I loaded up one of her concrete calf. I hooked it up with a rope to my pitcher pump at my house. Ironically someone drove in her driveway that night and she thought they took it. She called the police. I called the next morning and told her I caught her calf. Cattle rustling is a hanging offence. She couldn't believe I lifted it into Peggy's van. RIP you will be missed love ya lady.

Mary Ann was like a second mother to my son Jeff. He spent a lot of time at her house with Scottie. I'm sure they are having a wonderful time talking over those memories. RIP 🥹
