“ Maureen was the most upbeat and loving friend. She lit every room she stepped foot in. Working with her at Fenwicks, made everyday a party. Between her dance moves, songs to sing, and the stories she told about her kids and grandkids, she always put a smile on our faces. I will cherish the good advice, or even the bad, but most especially the hugs she gave every time I got to see her. I will miss Maureen always. Blakely and I love you, forever our dancing queen.

In my HS days, and a beloved friend for the past 48 years... my heartfelt condolences to Barbara, Mary, Pam and Patty, as well as Jess, Matthew and Adam. May God grant you peace in the next difficult days and warm you with beautiful memories to help ease the pain. Her children and grandchildren meant so much to her!
