

Maybeth L Brandenburg

September 20, 1916 - December 18, 2011

Maybeth L. Brandenburg, age 95, of Rensselaer passed away Sunday, December 18, 2011, at the Jasper County Hospital. Maybeth was born September 20, 1916, in Lee, Indiana, the daughter of Elmer and Laura (Culp) Gilmore.

Maybeth was a lifetime resident, graduating from Monon High School with the class of 1934.

She enjoyed music and singing with her sisters in the group "Al & the Gals". She played the piano at the former Lee and McCoysburg Methodist Churches for many years. Maybeth was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Rensselaer, was Past Matron of the Order of Eastern Star Evening Chapter #41, and was a member of the Jasper County Extension Homemakers club.

On August 8, 1936, in Havana, Illinois Maybeth married Robert George Brandenburg who preceded her in death on February 14, 1982.

Maybeth is survived by six children, Mary Whallon, Noblesville, IN, James (Martha) Brandenburg, Rensselaer, Joyce (James) Duzan, Vincennes, IN, Richard (Patricia) Brandenburg, Rensselaer, Donald (Becky) Brandenburg, Rensselaer and Sandra (Donald) Putt, Remington; 18 grandchildren, 37 great-grandchildren, several great-great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Maxine Heinzelman, Goodland, and Lola Mae Wise, South Bend.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a son, Dennis, a daughter, Donna, a grandson, a great-grandson, a brother and three sisters. Memorials may be made to the Trinity United Methodist Church or the Good Samaritan Food Pantry, Rensselaer.
