“ I will always remember Uncle Mick's sly looking smile, his great sense of humor, and his abundant hugs. I also have good memories of him sharing of his trust in God; one time in particular was when Aunt Marilyn had had her appendicitis on their cruise----their testimony of God's care was a blessing. We'll miss you, Uncle Mick! Kori, Glen, Rebecca, Micah, Caleb & Joseph VanderKooi

I, as well as many other local people spent many early mornings with Mick, at the corner resteraunt. Every morning I would know it was almost time to open the door when his truck would be the first one in the parking lot. Always in with a smile and good morning , I asked him each morning how are you today and he always told me you wouldn't believe it if I told you. Usually it was a short visit and then time to go. No matter where I was when he went to leave he would stop at the door look around find me and throw his hand up to wave goodbye. He is a good man who fought long and hard..... Mick, you will be truly missed! Rhonda and the morning coffee crew:(
