“ Cousin Mike, I know it wasn't the way you wanted to leave but you won't be forgotten as in the days ahead friends and family will find out memories of you showing how complex we all are. You left behind a strong family group as a legacy. I won't miss your truck passing Dad's house in North Hammond on the tollroad during your many roundtrips to the hospital in Chicago. The family will miss the "mysterious" flower depositor at their grave sites on various holidays. Unfortunately, now it is our turn to remember you.

In closing... "watch-a-ma-call-it"... your pain is over and hopefully you gave us all the strength to deal with ours to come.##imported-begin##Paul Michael##imported-end##
