“ I want to sincerely thank all 200 plus people/families that supported us in our time of need at the funeral home. Many others wrote when they couldn't make it. As always we certainly saw the love of our friends and family and the unbounding love and grace of God. In Mike's famous words "it'll be alright". He is at peace. I know we have a tremendous support from our community that extends miles and miles. We love you all--God Bless##imported-begin##Mrs Stacey Powell##imported-end##

“ Harold, Mabel, Tony and Steve,

Some things are hard to understand and no one is ever ready for death. Mike always seemed to have lots going for him. He was very friendly and likeable. Have lots of fond memories of watching the kids with the baby chicks, your mom, Harold, would get the boys for Easter. Our Children, David and Pam and thier families also send thier sympathy. We know Mike will be missed by you all and his wife and children. Know our prayers and thoughts are with you. Sorry we cannot make it up there.

Our Sympathy and Blessings to all.
