“ Grandma has been there for me since I was born. She babysat me and always helped me. Grandma always had me back and when she saw me she never failed to cry and kiss my cheek. I love you, Grandma. I see you in Heaven one day. We will both hold Jesus' hand as well as Grandpa's.

“ I think the hardest part of losing my grandma (and my grandpa years ago) is knowing that the one person who listened, never judged even when you were wrong, and thought you were the best mom, daughter, and granddaughter EVER is gone. My constant cheerleader, My constant worrier--which is why I think I never have to, and a huge comforter is no longer here with me in the physical form. The joy is she's walking pain free with my grandpa and dwelling with our Father. What a glorious day it will be when we are all reunited. Until then, grandma, it's not goodbye, but until I see you then. Love, Ang!

“ To my mom Mollie I love and miss you but I'm so happy you are pain free and in the arms of our Father and you are walking and fishing with dad.. And enjoying your grandkids, Stacey, Zachary, and Noah, and the other three. I know that dad and your mom were with you when you passed and were there to walk you home. The girls and grandkids feel blessed to have had you in there lives. We will all see you again. Love you mom. Your daughter.

Mollie was loved and will be missed by all who knew her! My heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to Gene, Kathy and Clay ... all the grandkids and their kids. But it makes me smile that Mollie has gone home to our Heavenly Father and is reunited with Elwood, the love of her life! Rest in Peace Mollie ... I know that you will be overjoyed with the eternity that God has planned for you!
