

Mona H. Clark

January 2, 1945 - May 31, 2025

Mona H. Clark, age 80, of Noblesville, Indiana, formerly of Rensselaer, passed away on May 31, 2025. She was born in Rensselaer on January 2, 1945, to Benjamin and Mable (Kooy) Hunter.

Mona graduated from the DeMotte school system and later married Warner Clark in Rensselaer. A devoted homemaker, Mona found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She was a talented quilter and seamstress. Mona wasn't defined only by her gentle needlework. With a spark for adventure, she once took professional race car driving lessons—an experience she spoke of often, with a gleam in her eye and a grin that said she had absolutely no regrets.

She is survived by her husband, Warner, son, Jonathan Clark of Noblesville, and her brother, Larry (Janet) Hunter of Rensselaer. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and one sister.

Friends and family are invited to gather for a visitation on Saturday, June 7, 2025, from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM CT at Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer. A funeral service will follow at 3:00 PM CT.

Mona will be remembered for her quiet strength, creativity, and the love she shared with her family.

“ I met Mona a few years ago at a railroad luncheon that we women were usually not invited. Anyway, my husband who has passed thought it was great that we could go. And I liked Mona right away. She was a sweet person and everyone liked her. I am so sorry that she has passed, but she has been through a lot and can now rest. I will miss you, dear friend.

“ Mona and Warner and we were part of a small group of retired railroaders which met monthly for lunch until Covid came along. I'd known Warner thru our railroad jobs and interest and my wife got to know Mona thru our lunches. They were in close contact during her final days. We will miss her and I'm sure she's in that little corner of heaven reserved for the wives of railroaders to swap experiences and maybe switch a boxcar or two. 🚂
Our best wishes to the family.
