“ I took care of her at Oak Grove, and she was always smiling and she made me laugh everyday. She was an absolute joy to care for and I was heartbroken when I heard. My sincerest condolences to her entire family in their time of tragic loss. May you take some comfort in knowing her suffering is over and she will be reunited with her son-in-law and grandson who she mourned so much. She will be missed dearly in the halls of Oak Grove.

“ Courtney's baby shower for Kellyn was right after Geandma Myra's stroke. Court was sad she wasn't going to be there. Grandma surprised her. I am so glad i witnessed such love and joy those two felt for each other. Courtney she loved you unconditionally and felt such pride. You are one lucky girl. Love you!❤️❤️❤️
