To. My beautiful sister who I always looked up to and wished I could sing as beautifully as you did. I remember the summers we shared when your children were young and you taught me how to French braid the girls hair and all the dresses we ironed for them because you insisted they had to have at Least two clean dresses every day. You showed me the correct way to clean house, cook and care for a family with love. I miss you but will never forget how you influenced my life. Rest in peace my wonderful sister, loving you always, Adele

“ Myrl was my 4-H leader we took baking classes out at her house. 39 years ago she sang at my wedding, even though she had a cold her voice was still amazing. She lived at the end of the lane by my grandparents and would go up and take care of them when we needed a nurse. She was an angel.
