“ I knew Myrtle for many years. She was one of the nicest and craziest ladies I have ever known. There are way too many stories to share about her but I know one thing, she will be missed and she will miss my fudge until I can see her again. She was one great person and will be missed.

I never got to meet her in person, but had several nice chats when she called work looking for Carla but got me instead. We had some nice talks. I feel like I knew her and was glad to have the opportunity for those chance conversations.
