“ We will miss Aunt Kat for a very long time. I have more fond memories of her than I could ever recount. It was impossible to be unhappy around her, she made everyone smile. She was a wonderful aunt, she made our childhoods better. I can hear her laughing even now. Doris, all our love and deepest sympathy, to you and the kids.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Mrs. Gilbert. I was blessed to have her as a next door neighbor in my young and impressionable years. What a perfect example of how to be a kind, caring and loving person she set for me. My thoughts and prayers are with you Doris, and all of your family. I can't help but think about how happy your Mother is to be with her beloved James though. What a perfect couple they are.
