“ Norb was always there, quiet, thoughtful and in the background. Although small in stature he had a huge heart and was always supportive of everyone & everything. I will miss him and so will my Tervs, Lennon in particular. Although he was screaming when Norb first held him as a baby puppy, there was an unspoken bond between them. Norb was always the one he searched for when we visited their house. Rest In Peace dear Norb and know that you were loved. Dianne L Allen
