“ Norma was a friend and mentor. She watch my boys when they were little and advised me as a young mother. She taught how to make salsa and gave freely out of her and John’s vast garden. She supported my husband when he pastored the church and prayed for us throughout the years. She has made a huge impact on this world for Jesus just by her love. She has helped make me who I am. I know her and my late husband, Mike are enjoying each other’s company now.
