

Otto Phillips Wood

November 19, 1919 - March 1, 2021

Otto Phillips “Phil” Wood, 101, of Rensselaer, Indiana, passed away Monday, March 1, 2021 at Parkview Haven in Francesville. Phil was born in Bloomington, IL on November 19, 1919, the son of Phillips Sawyer and Elsie Pearl (Otto) Wood.

Phil moved to Rensselaer from Bloomington, IL in 1936 and graduated from Rensselaer High School with the Class of 1938. He then attended Northwestern University College, Evanston Collegiate Institute, and the University of Illinois.

In 1941, Phil enlisted in the US Army and as it turned out, that was 5 days prior to the attack on Pearl Harbor. Following 12 weeks of Army training, he was assigned to Task Force 6968 for the construction of the ALCAN Military Highway, which is today called the Alaska Highway. After 6 months on this assignment, he returned to Wyoming for additional training. Phil’s next assignment was with the 305th Bombardment Group (H), Eighth Air Force in the European Theater of Operations as a Captain.

Following WWII, Phil married Shirley C. Carlberg, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, on October 5, 1946 and they shared 64 ½ wonderful years and three sons together until she preceded him in death on May 17, 2011.

Phil operated a seed business in Rensselaer for 32 years. He also attained his private pilot's license and took great joy in taking countless people up for their very first plane ride. Phil was a member of the First Christian Church of Rensselaer. Phil was active in his community. He was a James E. West Fellow (Boy Scouts of America), a St. Joseph College Fellow, member of the Rotary Club, Trustee for Benjamin Harris Homes for 30 years, and the first recipient of the Rensselaer Alumni Association's Community Service Award in 1992. Of all Phil's accomplishments, his greatest love was that of his family.

Phil is survived by his children, Richard Phillips (Wendy) Wood of Sutton, AK, Jeffrey (Dianna) Wood, and Bruce K. (Sheila) Wood, both of Rensselaer, IN.; 4 grandchildren, Michael, Sarah, Megan, and Laura; 2 step-grandchildren, Jonathan and Travis; 7 great-grandchildren and 4 step great-grandchildren.

Phil was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Mary Anne Wood.

As per Phil's wishes, there will be no visitation and only private graveside service for family only. Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer has been entrusted with the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Good Samaritan Food Pantry of Rensselaer or the charity of your choice.

“ Love you Grandpa. I'm so sorry we couldn't make it to your funeral. I'll never forget the days where we would drive down to see you and Grandpa Bruce, and every day you were always there to say "Hello". I remember every single story about you and grandma during WWII. The days you and Grandpa would drive down here to stay for a couple days. Every single time you've waken me up. I've kept you're birthday cards for the past 10 years waiting to see how long it would be. Sadly the day has come. But I'm so grateful that your in heaven, finally relaxing with Grandma, your parents and grandparents. God had gifted you an amazing life. And I couldn't have asked for a better Grandpa to sit with for hours, and hours. I love you, and will always be grateful for the 14 years you gave me.

Love, Jake

“ Phil Wood is an outstanding example of the greatest generation. The trait of that generation he best exemplified was his reticence to speak about the war. After all, what he had seen and done was what millions of others had seen and done. He and they each played a small part. He was a quiet man who did not put himself first. If he did talk about the war, he talked about meeting his future wife Shirley at a social for service men before the shipped to England. When he chatted with Rose Marie or me, he wanted to know how our family was and how we doing. He was a gracious and kind man.

“ Love you Gramps. There’s no words to describe my heartfelt gratitude for the support and love that you have shown our family over the years. I couldn’t have asked for a better set of grandparents and was blessed with the absolute best. I’m so happy that Grams escorted you to heaven with her and that you’re reunited with your family. It provides me with extreme solace knowing she was right by your side the entire time and that you’re finally reunited. The two of you are always in my heart and not a day will ever go by that I don’t think of you.

I love you both so much.

“Family before all else.”

Uff da, Pops. ❤️

“ We are all so saddened to hear of this loss. Phil was such a sweet and kind soul. He was a true “gentleman” and genuinely loved people. He treated everyone with such respect and was so interested in learning about people through conversation. He also is recognized for the years of service he gave to our Country.🇺🇸 We became so fond of Phil over the years and he will be greatly missed by many. In friendship, our sincere sympathy & prayers of comfort go out to Jeff, Bruce, Dick and families.

“ We were privileged to have lived by Phil & Shirley and our children got to experience their homemade sundae parties. Phil was a very kind and mannerly person. As a young girl I fondly remember him coming to the farm and visiting with mom & dad. Dad & Phil both have November birthdays and they often met for lunch to celebrate. We were also lucky enough to get an airplane ride. It was an honor to have known Phil. He will be missed. Our deepest sympathy to all of Phil's family. Estel & Deana George & family.

“ Phil and I were colleagues--we shared an office and prepared income tax returns for others. But much more than that, Phil, Shirley and their sons were good friends There are precious memories, including the times when our daughters were young, that Phil and "Woody" had us over to their house on Thompson Street for Thanksgiving and/or Easter dinner. Our sincere condolences to Dick Jeff, and Bruce and their families. We will miss Phil as we do Shirley. With heartfelt love, Allen and Bonnie Broussard

“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to all Phil’s family and friends. I remember him so well growing up. My dad, Walter, thought so much of him as we crossed paths with him many times. May the memories of others who touched his life through the years be felt among you now and give you strength and comfort. God bless all of you.

“ Praying for all of you as you mourn the loss of your dad and grandfather. Growing up in Rensselaer, I always felt like Mr. Wood was family. Both he and Mrs. Wood included us for some Easter dinners as our extended family was far away. Later it was always a treat to run into Mr. Wood when I was in town. He had a smile and shared his time to catch up in conversation. He will be missed.

“ I was one of the many people who got their first airplane ride from Phil, igniting a love of all things flight in me! When I passed my pilot's test, I called him right after I called my parents. I still have the date stamped note that he sent to me "Hurrah!". He always had a smile on his face. He was one of those rare individuals that treated you like he had all the time in the world to visit! He will be missed by the entire Rensselaer community.
