“ Pullins Family, Patti will be very much missed. It was an honor to know her for all these years. I want to thank you for sharing her with everyone who loved her, especially these last few weeks. I pray you find comfort in knowing that your mother, grandmother and wife did make a difference in many lives, and many will miss her. As they say, Heaven has gained a angel, one that will truly be missed here!!!!##imported-begin##April Smith##imported-end##

“ I am sorry I did not make it to calling. Please know that Barb and I know the pain you are going through as we have also lost our parents. I know that you have the hope and assurance of the resurrection and that can give you peace. Just be sure that as you are going through this, Jesus is with you and he is calling your name and saying "Peace Be With You" Barb and Larry.##imported-begin##Larry Klingler##imported-end##

“ Patty and I ruled the neighborhood as cowgirls at the corner of Cherry and Webster from 1951 when I moved to Rensselaer, until we got too old for make believe in Jr. High. Patty was a year younger than me, but always a head taller; being an only child, she had the best and most toys - always a treat to play at her house. Peace and strength to her lovely family as they continue to nurture the lives surrounding. I'm so sorry to learn of her passing.###imported-begin##June Pullin Lang###imported-end##
